SUBJECT: UNGA ADOPTS SECOND COMMITTEE RESOLUTIONS AND TWO OTHERS

REF: A. USUN 1172
1B. USUN 1152

11. Summary: On December 19, the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA) took final action on the remaining draft resolutions and decisions adopted by the Second Committee (Economic and Finance) - approving three resolutions by vote and adopting 31 resolutions and one decision by consensus. The UNGA also adopted two plenary resolutions by consensus. The General Assembly voted on fewer Second Committee resolutions this year than in past years, in large measure because many of this year's resolutions were procedural in nature. This year's Second Committee resolutions are notable for the large number of high-level meetings or events they call for from 2009-2013. End Summary.

At its December 19 meeting to take action on all remaining Second Committee resolutions, the UNGA took a vote on resolution A/63/410, "Permanent sovereignty of the Palestinian people in the Occupied Palestinian Territory, including East Jerusalem, and of the Arab populations in the occupied Syrian Golan over their natural resources," submitted under Agenda item 38. The resolution was adopted 164-8(U.S.)-5.

COMMENT

¶9. Whereas six Second Committee resolutions were voted upon during last year's sixty-second General Assembly, only three were adopted by vote this session. The reduction is largely due to the procedural nature of this year's resolutions - a consequence, in part, of the Second Committee's actions being taken in parallel with negotiations over the Doha Financing for Development Conference Outcome Document. This year's Second Committee resolutions are notable for the large number of high-level meetings or events they call for, despite the best efforts of the United States and like-minded countries. By our estimates, the Second Committee resolutions call for approximately 10 such events between 2009-2013 on a range of topics. These would be in addition to the existing UN calendar of high-level conferences.
